Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association adds Wawa's Marc Maiolino to Board of Directors

CAMP HILL (July 31, 2019) – The Pennsylvania Food Merchants Association (PFMA) today announced the appointment of Marc Maiolino to its Board of Directors.

Maiolino serves as the Director of Store Operations for Wawa, Inc., a PFMA member, where he's worked for the past 33 years in a variety of roles. Maiolino will fill the seat occupied by Wawa Loss Prevention Manager Lou Mola, who announced his retirement at PFMA's Annual Meeting in May.

"We are very pleased to add Marc to our Board of Directors and thank Lou for his years of service as a Board Member and Officer," PFMA President & CEO Alex Baloga said. "Marc has extensive experience in store operations, project management, leadership developments, talent management, and workforce analytics. We look forward to the value we expect he will bring to our Board."

In his current role, Marc is responsible for the operational oversight of 95 Wawa stores that serve parts of Pennsylvania and Delaware.

A graduate of Immaculata University with a dual degree in Business Organizational Dynamics and Human Resources, Marc has presented and participated in conferences at both the national and local levels as well as at educational institutions from elementary through post-secondary.

Marc is involved in the community as well, having previously served as a board member for Sensory Playhouse, a nonprofit specializing in educational and social learning for children with disabilities. In addition, Marc has volunteered as a deejay for TOPSports, an inclusive sports program in Mullica Hill, N.J. open to children ages four to 18 who have special needs.

Marc is a Philadelphia native who currently resides in Washington Township, N.J. with his wife Jennifer and their three children.
